Itinerary

Date	Sightseeing
Day 1	Arrive into Kuala Lumpur. Transfer to Hotel for Check-In. Welcome to Malaysia! You will be welcomed on arrival at Kuala Lumpur International Airport transferred to your hotel. On arrival, Check-In to your Hotel. You can take pictures of a couple of magnificent city symbols dominating the KL skyline which are the breathtaking Petronas Towers, the tallest twin buildings in the world and two 88-story Islamic masterpieces with a post-modern architectural design which was in 1996. The equally impressive KL Tower has the highest viewpoint in KL because it's also the seventh tallest communication tower in the world which tourists can experience because it's open to the public The tour will drive past the picturesque and sprawling 91.6-hectare urban park known as Lake Gardens on your way to the National Monument, a historical structure that commemorates Malaysia's fight for freedom during World War II. In the nearby National Mosque of Malaysia tourists can feast their eyes on its awe-inspiring modern construction built using a modern architectural style in reinforced concrete to symbolize the country's newly-gained independence. Plus, you can experience the unique balance of Eastern and Western architecture of the historic K.L. Railway Station, built in 1886 continues to operate to this day.
Day 2	Day Trip to Genting Highlands including Two Way Cable Car &amp; En-route Photostop at Batu Caves. After breakfast, you will be met by our representative and we would transfer you to Batu Caves enroute Genting highlands. After arriving in Genting on board the cable car, enjoy and spend the day in the indoor theme park. Genting has one of the best and largest casino in the world, Genting also has an indoor as well as a wet park. One can visit "First World Plaza" which is famous for both shopping as well as dining.
Day 3	Excursion to Cameron Highlands with City Tour. After breakfast, we take you through a full day city tour of Cameron The visitors can enjoy and learn about tea plantation. Tea was first planted in the area back in 1929 four years after the site was first developed. BOH (Best of Highland) tea and Cameron Valley brand are the most famous tea brands that come out of the area. Fresh fruits, flowers, and vegetables are also produced in the plantations.
